

Proposed Team

Location: Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

Executive Advisor, integrating the technical and policy analysis into a holistic and practical set of solutions.

Marc-Antoine Joly, P.Eng, EBCP, CMVP, CEM, CEA Project Manager

Bilingual leader with 25 years' experience leveraging extensive operations management and engineering knowledge. Diligent and dynamic to lead cross-functional teams ranging from sustainability, strategy, operations, and energy and asset management to achieve dramatic cost improvements through innovative ideas. Exceptional communicator with a track record of strategically empowering professional and front-line service staff to get results.

Relevant Project Experience

- Maple Leaf Foods – Designing, retrofitting, optimizing, and commissioning several production plants and lines
- VIP Energy Services Inc. – Developed and implemented conservation and sustainability plans for large clients with multiple locations or large geographical areas. Ensured top level engagement and funding was guided.
- CBRE Limited – Managed the technical arm of direct delivery of hard services for HVAC, Generators, Fire and Life Safety, Uninterruptable Power Supply, Building Automation, Electrical Maintenance categories for all properties managed by Infrastructure Ontario (~5,000).